NOTE OF APPRECIATION

Now is the time to tell you—our School Community—how appreciative we are for the role which you play in educating our youth for worthwhile citizenship in a changing society. The very satisfactory reward—the sense of doing a job that is meaningful and important—can be provided only through sincere, ardent cooperation.

We know that you join us in extending sincere best wishes for good health, happiness and success to Mrs. Emma M. Williams, whose retirement evidences a continued full, active life. The genuine regard and esteem in which she is held make her resignation a matter of deep regret.
